Officer Indicted On Murder Charge

Belleville, Ill., Jan. 18.—(UP)—The St. Clair county grand jury returned an indictment of murder against Police Officer E. W. Mellon of the Belleville police, today, superseding a manslaughter indictment voted yesterday. He was ordered held without bond.
Mellon is alleged to have shot and killed Howard Walther, 18, the night of October 7, Walther, in company with four other youths, were surprised by officers Mellon and Herbert Kallenbrenner, peeping in the windows of a woman's dressing room at Turner Hall. The boys fled and Mellon, in pursuit, fired two shots, one of them striking Walther in the back. The boy died in a local hospital.
Mellon told reporters that he fired at the ground and that he believed the bullet glanced from the sidewalk. His statement was partially verified when the bullet was removed from the body and was found to be flattened.

Chloroform Failed To End Dog's Life

Waukegan, Ill., Jan. 18.—(AP)—Trixie, George Van Valkenberg's police dog, isn't dead after all. It's sick, but the doctor says it'll be all right.
Several days ago Trixie's master, having observed its sufferings, humanely arranged to put it out of misery via chloroform. Afterwards he took Trixie's silent form to the garage to await suitable burial weather.
Yesterday the grave was dug, and Van Valkenberg went to the garage to get Trixie. From it's blanket shroud, the dog scrambled up, and ran happily to it's master.
Seeing Trixie wasn't dead, Van Valkenberg took it to a dog doctor who promised it back soon, good as new.

"Story Book Romance" Crashes

The "story book romance" of Rosamund Gluck Powell, shown above, and Ralph Powell, inset, has come to an end in the Omaha divorce courts. Powell gave up a $150-a-week position as secretary to Mrs. Arthur Schoellkopf, widow of the Niagara, N. Y. Power Company executive, who inherited $55,000,000 upon her husband's death, to marry Miss Gluck, who is Mrs. Schoellkopf's niece. The couple disregarded Mrs. Schoellkopf's disapproval of their marriage and Powell took a job as real estate salesman in Omaha at $150 a month. Now he has filed suit for divorce and asks custody of Ralph Jr., their 4-year-old son. Powell was three times Missouri Valley Tennis champion.

GANGSTER SHOT DEAD IN FIGHT WITH HENCHMAN Claims Self Defense As He Surrenders To Policemen

St. Louis, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Carmelo Fresina, alias Charles Freese, alleged gang leader with a police record as a moonshiner and extortionist, shot and killed one of his henchmen, Ray Weaver, during a quarrel at the Fresina home late yesterday and then surrendered to police.
Fresina pleaded self defense, declaring he shot Weaver only after the latter had reached for a revolver he carried in a shoulder holster. Weaver, 34, a former saloon keeper, and garage proprietor, had been arrested several times. He had told police he formerly resided at Carthage, Mo., where his mother now lives. The body is to be sent there for burial.
Although arrested for investigation in more than ten feud murders in recent years but never convicted, this was the first time Fresina admitted having killed anyone. Weaver was shot five times in the back. Fresina is held for the coroner.
The alleged gangster declined to discuss details of the quarrel other than to say it followed a "business conference." He said he dashed out of the room when Weaver started to draw his gun, himself obtained a revolver and, reentering the room through another door, shot Weaver dead.
Deportation proceedings are pending against Fresina and he also is under bond for shooting at prohibition agents during one of many raids on his residence. Police say Fresina's gang has been dominant in the local bootleg industry since the Giannola-Russo gang feud, in which he was wounded, wiped out 25 of his friends, enemies and competitors in 1927 and 1928.

Sneeze Powder Made Three Students Ill

Decatur, Ill., Jan. 18.—(UP)—Three high school girls were under the care of physicians here today following a prank by other students who scattered "sneeze powder" throughout the high school building.
The powder affected numerous other students and teachers but only three girls students needed medical attention. It is a powerful chemical irritant and was blown into the air of the class rooms, placed in pages of books and tossed into the ventilating system to be carried throughout the building. Classes were disrupted as the powder produced paroxysms of sneezing and itching. Physicians said that the powder can produce infection if it falls upon a sensitive skin, slightly damp.
The culprits who performed the prank have not been apprehended.

Utilities Allege Socialistic Move

Washington, Jan. 18.—(UP)—Council for the electric utilities engaged in a spirited clash today with Edgar A. McCulloch, Federal Trade Commissioner, when the Commissioner ruled out documentary evidence purporting to show details of an organization to socialize industries of the country.
McCulloch ruled the evidence not pertinent to the case. Bernard F. Weadock, utilities counsel, protested the decision, holding the evidence necessary to explain the "defensive publicity campaigns" conducted by the committee.
McCulloch allowed the utilities to name for the record organizations alleged to have conducted the campaign for public ownership.
Those named were the League for Industrial Democracy, the Public Ownership League, the National Popular Government League, and the People's Legislative Service.
McCulloch later reconsidered and, after striking out two of the 96 items listed, permitted it to go into the record the descriptive list of documentary evidence he had previously ruled out.
The items stricken out included references to a letter signed "Carl D. Thompson" with a sentence beginning "If agreeable will you enter on our list of members in the Ownership League" and another letter signed "yours for the revolution, Arthur Lesueur."
With the admission of this list, Weadock said the utilities concluded their case on the publicity phase of the inquiry. Hearings on financial activities of the industry will open Feb. 4, McCulloch announced.

Veteran Killed By Train On Wabash Ry.

Taylorville, Ill., Jan. 18.—(AP)—Trainman on the Wabash Railroad this morning discovered the lifeless body of Leo Lacy, 36 years old, owner of a transfer line in this place, along the railroad right of way a mile south of here.
Lacy had evidently been struck by one of the two extra trains on the division last night. As his cap was found at the Cherokee and Adams street crossing, authorities advanced the theory that Lacy was struck at the crossing and the body carried on the pilot of the engine to the place where it was found.
The man was a World War veteran, having seen service with the 327th Field Artillery in France for about a year.

MACDONALD IS HOST TODAY TO U. S. DELEGATES

What Was Discussed At Conference Today Not Disclosed

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
London, Jan. 18.—(UP)—Premier Ramsay MacDonald received the entire American delegation to the London naval conference at his residence, No. 10 Downing Street, at noon today.
The delegates arrived in customary diplomatic style, wearing morning coats and topers, arrived at Downing Street at 11:55 A. M., shortly after Miss Isabel MacDonid, the Premier's daughter, made her entrance.
A small crowd was present in the historic street, as the Americans approached the traditional home of British Premiers.
Before entering the building, the delegation posed for a group photograph.
The Americans were entertained by the Premier for an hour, emerging from Downing Street at 1 P. M. highly pleased with the cordiality of their reception.
Secretary Stimson, who headed the visiting party and introduced them to Premier MacDonald, appeared much refreshed by his night's rest.
Except to say that the delegation had met not only the Premier but the entire official British delegation, he declined to discuss the meeting.
U. S. Holding Key
Twenty-four hours after its arrival in England, the American delegation was regarded as holding the key to world disarmament.
The silence of the United States representatives, following their preliminary interviews with British leaders on the major issues which will come before the conference, has made them the chief figures of speculation, and their pronouncement of policy is eagerly awaited by diplomats of the other four world powers.
The energy with which Secretary of State Stimson and his colleagues plunged into their pre-conference tasks, interviews is considered "typically American," and expressive of the business-like methods with which the preliminary negotiations have been undertaken.
Stimson Reticent
Speculation as to the result of Secretary Stimson's first private meeting with Premier MacDonald yesterday was heightened when Stimson declined to say anything other than his "cup of tea" with the English leader had been "pleasant."
For the rank and file of the American group—exclusive of those who were engaged on technical details and work on important naval data—the first two days were devoted to getting adjusted to London, to sight-seeing and to dodging London's "strange left-hand traffic."
While no official comment was forthcoming it is presumed that Secretary Stimson and Premier MacDonald already have discussed the outstanding questions coming before the conference.
These include MacDonald's suggestion for the eventual abolition of battleships, reduction of size and gun calibers, and the Franco-Italian Mediterranean problem.
A report that President Hoover had released to Secretary Stimson Thursday, while the delegation was on the George Washington, that he was willing to prolong the Washington agreement, and to reduce the size of battleships by 10,000 tons and the guns from 16 to 12 inches calibre, was published today by the Daily Express.

Rep. Geo. Dixon States Position

GEORGE C. DIXON

Dixon, January 18, 1930.
Last May I talked with Senator Wright at Springfield regarding his future political plans. He told me he would be a candidate for State Treasurer. I told him then I would be a candidate for Senator to succeed him. In June he went on a European tour. Acting on the faith of his statement I announced my candidacy for Senator. He returned from Europe and publicly announced his candidacy for Treasurer and actively campaigned for the nomination. After my announcement candidacies for Representative were announced in the following order, Collins; Allen; Warren and Brydia. They all relied on my announcement for Senator, which of course meant I would not run for Representative. Senator Wright has withdrawn as a candidate for Treasurer and asked me to withdraw my candidacy for Senator and again run for Representative, against the four gentlemen who became candidates for that office knowing I would not be. To follow the suggestion made by Senator Wright to me would be most dishonorable and unfair conduct toward the four aspirants for Representative. I shall continue to be a candidate for Senator with confidence that the Republicans of the District will appreciate my position and act justly.
Respectfully,
GEORGE C. DIXON.

TWO ALLEGED GAS STATION ROBBERS TAKEN AT OREGON

Chicago, Jan. 18.—(UP)—Mayo William Hale Thompson threw to Chicago financial muddle into more confusion today by vetoing the "economy" budget for the 1930 time at a recessed meeting of the city council.
With the veto came a message which "Big Bill the Builder" called on the 50 aldermen to add $5,000,000 on the budget of $55,000,000 "for the protection of the health and homes of our people."
Alderman John S. Clark, leader of the anti-administration forces, started lining up his faction in an effort to pass the budget over the veto. On the last test lineup Clark mustered 34 votes, just enough to re-pass the budget but it appeared doubtful if he could muster that force in face of the administrative whip. On the other hand, it was doubted if Mayor Thompson could find the necessary strength to pass over his own budget.
Clark's faction was in an awkward mood when the veto message was read and threatened to adjourn for two or three weeks and let the administration find money for a ready overdue police and fire pay rolls where it could.

Artillery in Car.

The men give the names of Robert and Leonard Eastman, brothers, their ages as 17 and 22 and claim Bloomington, Ill., as their home. When searched at Oregon, one of the men was found to be carrying a .25 caliber automatic revolver, which was fully loaded and in the car was found a sawed off shot gun and a .410 gauge shot gun. The brothers accounted for the artillery by claiming that they were coming into the north part of the state on a hunting expedition.

Both are said to have denied any knowledge of any of the series of service station holdups which have been carried on in the northern part of Illinois in the past few weeks. One of the brothers was brought to Dixon this morning and lodged in the city jail.

Attendants at the Wasson garage at Franklin Grove, where the cash drawer was emptied of its contents last week by one of two men riding in a Chevrolet car will view the Eastman's today before they are taken back to Mendota. The attendant at the Mendota garage will be brought to Dixon to look the man over in an effort to identify the bandits who held him up last night.

NEW ARGUMENT MADE AGAINST AMENDMENT 18

leader, announced his willingness for a vote at any time, while Senator Blaine Repn., Wis., author of the resolution, said he would expect a vote as soon as the tariff bill is out of the way. Chairman Norris of the Judiciary committee lent his encouragement to the movement by promising the committee would report out the resolution—adversely—and let the Senate decide.
A check by the United Press showed that Blaine can hope for no more than 20 of the 96 senatorial votes. Borah predicted no more than eight would go on record for repeal.
Wets Admit Defeat.
Wets admit they have no chance to win but declared they want to place every Senator and House member on record so his vote would be an issue when he comes up for reelection in November.
"The present temperature of the Senate is strong against the resolution," Blaine said. "But it is well to keep the issue before the people and let them know how their representatives in Congress stand on the issue."
"The vote will be preceded by much illuminating debate. Some time we must come to the realization that the 18th amendment cannot be enforced. I believe that time will come soon. The dries surely have confidence in the efforts of Mr. Hoover to enforce it. I do not say have, but they have. Well if Mr. Hoover is unable to enforce it, the dries must reach the conclusion that it should be amended. That is the hope I have."
Borah scoffed at the idea of repeal. His statement and that of Blaine's were backed by their respective associates, showing clearly that the issue was no personal feud between them.

Thompson Vetoes Economy Budget

Chicago, Jan. 18.—(UP)—Mayor William Hale Thompson threw to Chicago financial muddle into more confusion today by vetoing the "economy" budget for the 1930 time at a recessed meeting of the city council.

Alderman John S. Clark, leader of the anti-administration forces, started lining up his faction in an effort to pass the budget over the veto. On the last test lineup Clark mustered 34 votes, just enough to re-pass the budget but it appeared doubtful if he could muster that force in face of the administrative whip. On the other hand, it was doubted if Mayor Thompson could find the necessary strength to pass over his own budget.
Clark's faction was in an awkward mood when the veto message was read and threatened to adjourn for two or three weeks and let the administration find money for a ready overdue police and fire pay rolls where it could.

THE SPIRIT OF DIXON.

"We will never bring disgrace to this our city, by any act of dishonesty or cowardice, nor ever desert our comrade; we will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the city, both alone and with many; we will revere and obey the city laws, and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others; we will strive unceasingly to quicken the public's sense of civic duty; that thus in all these ways, we may transmit this city, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

The Athenian oath needs no comment, except to remark that it was taken seriously.

The spirit exemplified in the oath played its part in creating the Athens of history. The same spirit in our community might do likewise, but whether it did or not, it would certainly result in making Dixon a better place in which to live.

Communities, you know, are largely judged by their spirit. Think of any nearby city. You don't think of it in terms of buildings, or of individuals,—you think of it in terms much more general—its atmosphere, its spirit.

"The Spirit of St. Louis" has been made famous by Lindbergh.

Or take New York—it is the spirit of Manhattan that stirs you,—not the fact that the tallest building in the world is located there. Your conception of New York will undergo no change if Detroit puts up the 80-story building it's been talking about.

When you think of New York, you think of Broadway, of Wall Street, of tense and tinsel life, of high finance, of fierce and furious living, of gay crowds, of achievement, of all these things together.

Each city and town has its spirit, though some may be more negative than positive.

In Athens it was positive . . . We still remember Athens!

SHEARER MUST STAY AWAY.

Dispatches from Washington indicate that William B. Shearer will be barred from Great Britain if he attempts to join his way into the forthcoming naval disarmament conference at London.

This is very good news. There seems to be a good deal of haziness about the exact nature of Shearer's activities at the last conference, but there is little reason to doubt that he was sent there to toss a monkey wrench into the proceedings if he could, and he did his blattant best to fulfill his mission.

How much influence the man may have had is another question. However, there is no use in taking any chances. His role at such an affair seems to be that of troublemaker. Both the United States and Great Britain will be much better off if Shearer is kept at least 2000 miles away from London while the conference is in session.

DRINKING THE EVIDENCE.

The South Carolina supreme court has ruled that a jury in a prohibition law trial may drink the evidence in order to satisfy itself whether it is intoxicating.

This sounds like common sense. Yet it seems to us that it might, just conceivably, open the way for queer doings.

The supreme court made its ruling in denying the appeal of an Aiken county bootlegger, who wanted his conviction thrown out because the jury that convicted him drank 49 bottles of seized beer during its deliberations.

Offhand, one would think that the man had grounds for complaint. It would hardly seem that a jury need to drink four dozen bottles of beer in order to learn whether the stuff had an illegal kick. Still, the jurors may have figured that it's best to be thorough.

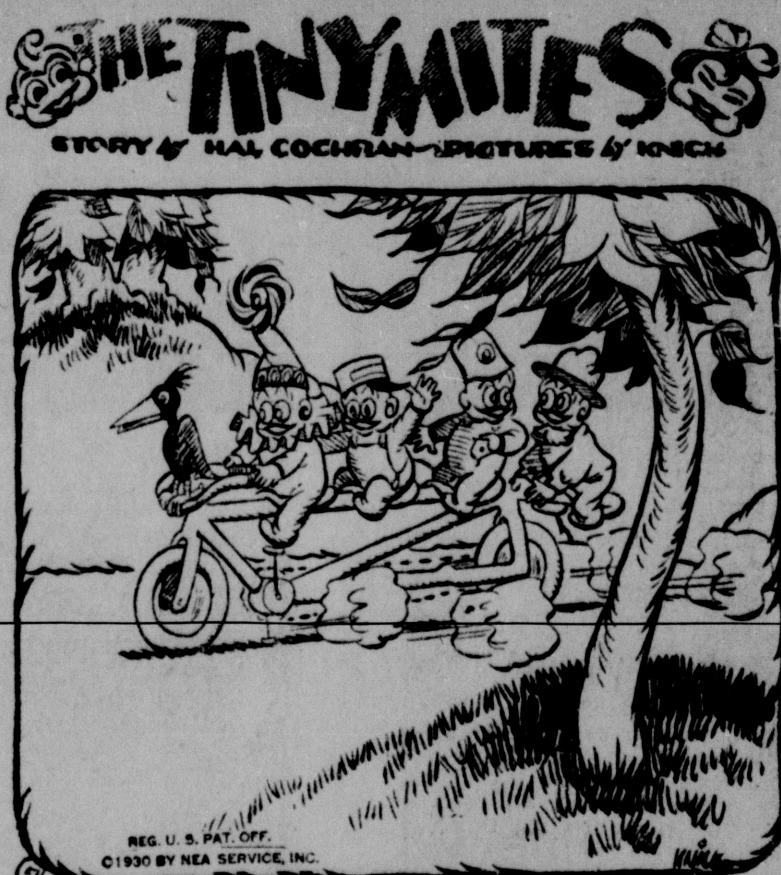

The man next door has a dog he calls Grover. Asked for the reason for this variant of Rover, he told us it wasn't a variant at all, but the dog was named after Grover Whelan, New York's greeter-police commissioner, "because he greets everyone so enthusiastically."

An estimated 4,000,000 tourists crossed the border from the United States into Canada during 1929, and each spent about $75 while on the Canadian side, according to statistics. Probably took in a lot of movies.

A lighthouse is offered for sale in an ad in a British newspaper. Somebody ought to pick it up, teach it to box and match the thing with Primo Carnera.

Some astute research expert discovers that poets hardly ever are athletes. Even though quite a few of them are long-winded.

Words can be used to express a lot, but around the Christmas season figures mean so much more.

The bird kept pecking very fast. Said Clowry, "How long will this last? I'm getting tired of waiting. I would like to take a ride. The bird's pecked deep into the tree trunk. Come on now, Timies, let us see if we can move it off our bike. At least it can be tried."

"There's not much use," another said. "But, if you want to go ahead. We all will gladly lend a hand, but it will do no good." So once again they tried their luck, but only found the tree still stuck. Said Clowry, "That was foolish, lads. I didn't think we could."

The bird then spoke up. "Mercy me, you're as impatient as can be. Just give me time and I will shortly have your fine bike out. When this big trunk is pecked in two, there'll be one thing for you to do. Just move the upper end of it. 'Twill free your bike, no doubt."

And so the bunch just sat around and listened to the birds beak pound

At last the tree trunk squealed real loud and slowly broke apart. "Ah there you are," the kind bird cried. "I guess you'll shortly have a ride. You must admit the way I peck is really quite an art."

The Timies then pulled at the tree and, though 'twas heavy as could be, they soon had pulled it off their bike and stood the bike up straight. Said Clowry, "Now there's nothing wrong. We'll ride and take the bird along. Let's hurry, lads and hop aboard, 'cause I can hardly wait."

The bird jumped to the handle bars and cried, "I hope we go to Mars. I always have to fly, but I will take a rest today." Each Tiny jumped into his place. A smile spread on each little face. The pedals soon were going 'round and they were on their way.

VERSAILLES CONFERENCE

On Jan. 18, 1919, the Versailles peace conference formally opened.

Out of this meeting came the treaty of peace signed by representatives of the allied powers and Germany, marking the close of the World War.

Versailles is a town in northern France, capital of the department of Seine-et-Oise, 12 miles southwest of Paris. It has been the scene of many other historic events, including the signing of the armistice between Great Britain and the United States in 1783, and was, for a time, the capital of France.

Today also is the anniversary of the institution of the United States Departments of Commerce and Labor, on Jan. 18, 1903.

On Jan. 18, 1775, Georgia elected delegates to the Continental Congress.

On Jan. 18, 1782, Daniel Webster was born.

GOOD HUNTING

AMASA, Mich.—Eric and Art Gustafson are great Nimrods. While hunting near their camp at Buck Lake, Art shot a deer. On the way to retrieve the deer he ran into a mother bear and two good sized cubs. He tried to shoot them, but his gun failed. His brother, however, killed the three bears. The two men bagged the deer and three bears in five minutes.

COSTLY BEAUTY

PARIS—French women spend more money than any other nationality for beauty aids. The reason lies in the constant change in styles and shades of lipstick, rouges, face powders and all other cosmetics. Over here the manufacturers' slogan is: "A complexion for every dress." It costs French women $300,000,000 a year to follow this slogan.

Radio Hears Her Prayers

Thousands of children, just before their mother tucks them under the covers at night, wait until little Ella Potter leads them in prayer over the radio from WJZD, Chicago. Little Miss Potter of Mooseheart kneels before the microphone of WJZD every evening at 8:30, central standard time, while the little orphans of the Moose institution there follow her.

Invention Increases Range

An inductance attachment for low wave radio broadcasting sets used by the U. S. government has been perfected by Donald Morgan, Muskogee, Okla., fireman and radio expert of the national guard. It increases the present range limit of from three to eight miles to a indefinite point. It consists of two metal coils, as shown on top of the set in this picture. Morgan has several orders from the government for his invention.

Tried for Children's Deaths

Her poise unbroken by months in jail, Gladys Mae Parks, upper left, former night club hostess, went to trial for murder at Camden, N. J., still protesting her innocence of the killing of two little children entrusted to her care by their father, Allen B. Rogers, upper right, an insurance agent. While the prosecution asked the death penalty for Mrs. Parks, her chief counsel, Samuel P. Orlando, lower right, refused to plead her guilty to a charge of manslaughter. The defense will contend that the deaths of 4-year-old Dorothy Rogers, lower left, and her infant brother Timothy, whose dismembered bodies were found in crime graves in two widely separated communities, were accidental.

ROCHELLE NEWS

Rochelle—The Legion "Get Acquainted Dinner" held in the Woodman hall Thursday night brought together one of the largest crowds of men ever gathered around a banquet table. Over two hundred were served by the Legion Auxiliaries. Ben L. Berve acted as toastmaster and the principal speaker was Department Commander Edward Hayes. Others who spoke briefly included Thomas O'Meara, Junior Vice Commander; Edward Wirtz, editor of the Legionaire; Harold Eldred, 13th District Commander; Sterling; John W. Nelson, William Runnels, DeKaib, 12th District Commander; Julius Silverman, chairman State Citizens' Military Training Camp; Ashton Johnson, commander Craig Post, Rockford; Judge Leon Zick, Robert E. Hoffick, chief clerk Dept. Headquarters and Ralph Hess, of Byron, Ogle County Commander. Music was furnished by the A. M. Lind orchestra and at the conclusion of the speaking, Joe Doll and Bernard Donoho, two fast Dixon boys gave a three round exhibition boxing bout. The bout was arranged by B. F. Paley, Ross Harter was referee, and Bob Andrews, timekeeper. These boys are to enter the Golden Glove tournament as contestants in the Freeport district.

Commander Hayes stated that the state legion was an $180,000 net asset organization, that $50,000 is spent annually for service work and $50,000 by the state department. Harold Eldred is a member of the state finance committee and the 13th District Commander was warmly congratulated by his chief. Commander Hayes also gave John W. Nelson, vice commander of the 13th District and district service officer a great ovation. The speaker stated that the first objective of the Legion was to see that all disabled veterans were taken care of.

There were 53,000 claims filed this last year but thousands were turned down before the World's War veteran act of 1924 was passed. This year the American Legion is focusing its attention on the care of the disabled and to accomplish this a service survey of all World War men and women is being taken.

"For your information," stated Mr. Hayes, "there are some twenty-five or thirty thousand ex-service men in Illinois, who have disabilities incurred in service but have never made application for compensation. It is our desire to try and find these men through a survey of ex-service men in the State of Illinois. To accomplish this task we are enlisting the service of corporations who may be employing ex-service men."

Mr. Hayes also spoke with feeling of what is being accomplished at the War Veterans' orphanage at Normal and expressed satisfaction with the cooperation the state legislature is giving the American Legion.

The success of the banquet is due largely to Edward Slothower and the Auxiliaries.

The twisted and fireswept skeleton of a cabin monoplane in which two flyers died is pictured above in a clearing on the shores of a lake near Hebron, Conn., where the craft crashed in a fog after an altitude test. The charred bodies of aviators Daniel Marra and William Kirkpatrick, who had been objects of a wide-spread, four-day search, were found in the wreckage. The plane, crashing in an attempt to land, had cut a swath for more than 300 yards through tree-tops before it finally smashed against the trunk of a big oak.

Daily Health Talk

THE STORY OF A TOOTH BY L. A. KESSLER, D. D. S. Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

(This series of articles is prepared under the direction of the Gorgas Memorial Institute, which is organized to perpetuate the life work of the late Major-General Gorgas in preventing unnecessary illness. Headquarters of the Institute are at 1331 G. Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.)

"It's right in there, Doctor," said Mrs. Smith indicating the spot in her mouth with her finger. The Dentist searched diligently. "I don't find a thing. You have rather good teeth, Mrs. Smith."

Mrs. Smith complained to her husband, "Why don't you go to my Dentist, Dr. Pick?" asked Mr. Smith. And so she went. "It's right there, Doctor," Dr. Pick searched diligently. "I don't find a thing."

Two months later Mrs. Smith awoke with a terrific toothache. She went back to Dr. Dig. For a long time Dr. Dig continued his examination, tapping this tooth and that one, passing silk floss between the teeth, reaching between the teeth with slender instruments first from one side and then the other. Finally, he said: "I believe there is a cavity in that upper molar beneath the gum and in between the teeth. Suppose we have an X-ray picture made to be sure."

The picture was made and sure enough, there was a big cavity exposing the nerve. The tooth was treated and filled. The treatment was difficult and the fillings were large. So was the bill, thought Mrs. Smith.

Four years later Mrs. Smith developed rheumatism in her fingers. Being a pianist of skill it was most distressing. She commenced to "make the rounds," going to first one man and then another. She took much medicine and followed much advice about her diet. Finally her teeth were X-rayed and as a result the tooth that Dr. Dig had filled was extracted. The extraction was expensive, for the tooth broke and its removal was difficult and currentment of the diseased bone was found necessary. Then a bridge had to be made to replace the lost tooth. When all the bills were paid they added up to quite a sizeable sum.

The progress of the rheumatism was stopped but Mrs. Smith had to give up her music. Her fingers were no longer equal to the exacting requirement of the piano technic. Speaking of the necessity of filling cavities before they reach the nerve (pulp) Dr. Look said: "It is easier to blow out a match than to extinguish a conflagration."

So, Mrs. Smith's two children, and Mr. Smith immediately had their teeth X-rayed, and now they have regular semi-annual dental examinations, to save worry, pain, trouble, and expense.

"Old Soak" Talked Too Much: Barred

Washington, Jan. 18.—(AP)—"The Old Soak," Secretary Stimson's parrot has gone into retirement and disgrace, but not because he has psittacosis, or "parrot's fever." The explanation for his misfortune is simple: he talked too much.

It is rumored he began to use liberally profanity he picked up during his days in the Philippines. Guides complained that "The Old Soak's" ranting drowned out their voices as they ushered tourists through the building. "The Old Soak" was moved to the basement.

With the Cagers

BY WILLIAM WEEKS

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Chicago, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Two of the three unmarried Big Nine basketball stars—those owned by Illinois and Indiana—will be the targets of Wisconsin and Northwestern sharpshooters tonight.

The Illini, ranked as the early season surprise team because of triumphs over Ohio State and Michigan, will invade Wisconsin, while Indiana, victor over Chicago in its only conference start, will entertain Northwestern's first division five.

Defeat for either Wisconsin or Northwestern virtually would mean elimination from the title scramble. Each has suffered one defeat, the Badgers having fallen before Northwestern, and the Wildcats, in turn, having bowed to Purdue's undefeated five. Should both Illinois and Indiana fall tonight, Purdue would ease into sole possession of first place.

The Illinois-Wisconsin game is expected to develop into a defensive, low-scoring struggle. Both teams use a short passing offense and man-to-man defense, and breaks may be a big factor. Wisconsin gave Ohio state a bigger beating than Illinois was able to administer, but the Illini will be stronger tonight with the return of Captain Doug Mills whose defensive work aided in the defeat of Michigan.

The Indiana-Northwestern contest promises lots of sharpshooting with Branch McCracken and Zellar of Indiana pitted against Captain Rut Walter and Rus Berghem of the Wildcats. Northwestern defeated Wisconsin and Minnesota before encountering "Stretch" Murphy, Johnny Wooden and the rest of the Purdue team, which went back to Lafayette, Ind., with a 39 to 22 decision. Against Chicago McCracken and Zellar gave an exhibition of shooting to crack in six field goals each, and should be at no disadvantage in firing on their home range.

Monday's program includes a crucial test for Michigan, co-holder with Wisconsin of the 1929 title. The Wolverines will entertain Indiana and defeat will just about wreck any championship hopes alive at Ann Arbor. Chicago, handicapped by the loss of Sid Yates, its high scorer, will invade Wisconsin. Yates suffered a fracture of a small bone in his right wrist and will be out of action for at least two weeks.

Elder Entered In Brooklyn Contests

New York, Jan. 18.—(UP)—Some of the 80,000 persons who jammed the Yankee Stadium last fall and saw Jack Elder, Notre Dame backfield star run nearly 100 yards to score against the Army for a 7-0 victory, will go to Brooklyn tonight to witness Elder in a return engagement.

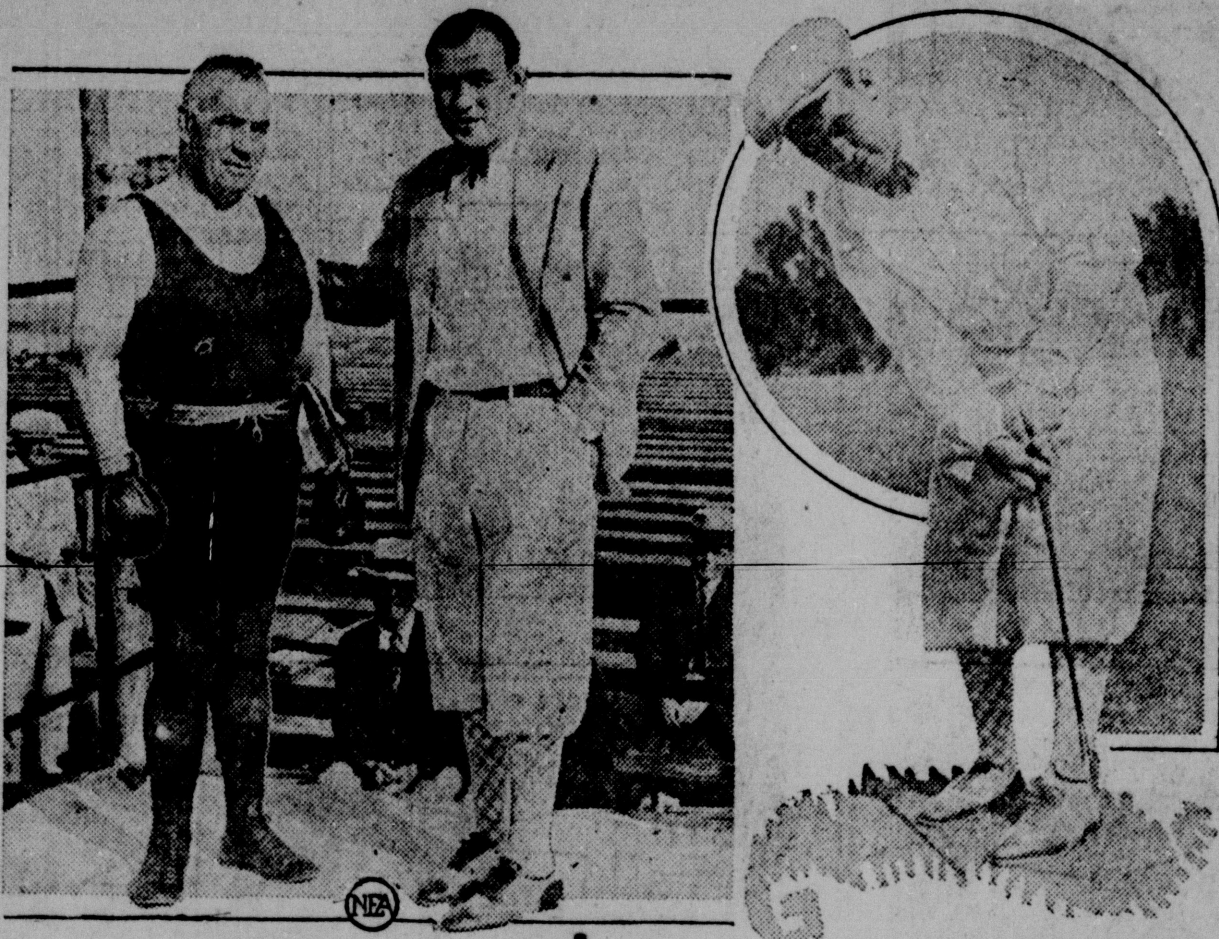

The Notre Dame speedster is the chief attraction of the annual Brooklyn College A. A. indoor games. He is listed to compete in the Olympic sprint series.

Elder will have tough competition in the series of dashes at 60, 75 and 100 yards and 100 meters. Karl Wildermuth, Georgetown flash, is chief among them. Wildermuth made a grand start in the winter campaign a couple of weeks ago when he equalled world's records in two of the Knights of Columbus sprint series events.

The Old Sharkey Meets the New

Light training has begun in Florida for Jack Sharkey of Boston, who will box Phil Scott, British heavyweight champion, in Madison Square Garden Corporation's annual Miami affair. Sharkey likes his golf, as the picture shows, and from now until fight time will be seen regularly on the links. Jack's acquaintance in ring togs is Tom Sharkey, one-time heavyweight fighter discovered and managed in a successful campaign many years ago by Tim McGrath. The two Sharkeys are unrelated, as the Boston gob's name is Kukaaska.

Games Here

Dixon Lights, 8; Belvidere, 17.

By ROBERT LESAGE

The Dixon high school basketball squads tasted defeat in both contests of a twin bill with Belvidere last evening, in the new high school gymnasium. This was the second conference game to be played by the purple and white squads this year and as in the case of the DeKalb game, the locals played a hard fast game but didn't have the scoring punch that results in winning teams. In the Dixon-Belvidere heavyweights game Belvidere had a fine three man scoring combination made up of the Bischoff brothers. Dixon opened the scoring with a couple of free throws but with deadly accuracy, the before-mentioned brothers soon overcame the lead and by the half the Belvidere five were leading 8 to 5. Lebre scored the lone Dixon basket in the first half, all the other points were made off free throws.

In the second period the substitution of Wheeler, McClare and Johnson were made for Belvidere. In rapid succession each man caged a basket apiece and the downfall of the Dixon aggregation was made certain. The final count was 16 to 8 in favor of the visitors. The teams lined up as follows:

	Dixon	B. F. P. T. P.
Cortright, F.	0	1 2 1
Lebre, F.	1	2 2 4
Worley, F.	0	0 0 0
Vorhis, C. (Capt.)	0	2 3 2
Tetter, G.	0	0 1 1
Hasselberg, G.	0	0 1 1
	Belvidere	B. F. P. T. P.
M. Bischoff, F.	0	2 0 2
Wheeler, F.	1	0 2 2
P. Bischoff, F.	0	0 0 0
Stupell, C. (Capt.)	0	4 2 4
J. Bischoff, G.	1	0 1 2
McClare, G.	1	0 0 2
Gunningham, G.	1	1 1 3
Johnson, G.	1	0 1 1

LIGHTS LOSE

The Dixon Lightweight aggregation lost to the Belvidere five in the curtain raising performance, 8 to 17. The visitors opened the scoring and by the half rang up a lead of 10 to 4. Carlson making 3 of the Dixon's 4 points was forced out of the contest on four personals soon after the start of the second period and although the locals tried hard to overcome the lead they were unsuccessful. Flamingam and Mitchell, substitutes for Dixon sunk one floor shot apiece for the 4 points.

ENGLISH RING
CHAMPION WON
IN THE GARDENBerg Gave Canzoneri
Thorough Trouncing
Last Eve

New York, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Kac (Kid) Berg, the human perpetual motion machine from England, today occupied a strategic position from which to fire a challenge at the king of all the lightweights, Sammy Mandell of Rockford, Ill.

Berg gained the finest triumph of his American invasion in Madison Square Garden last night when he gave Tony Canzoneri, former featherweight champion, a terrific beating in a ten round bout fought before 18,800 spectators.

The English Jew now needs only to turn back Al Singer, Bronx idol, later in the indoor season to gain a title "shot" with Mandell in one of the big outdoor shows of the year. That at least, is Madison Square Garden's plan of action.

Except for the first and third rounds Berg gave Canzoneri a thorough trouncing. Carrying the fight to his stocky little rival, the Briton slung leather from every angle, split Tony's lips and cheeks and opened up cuts over both of the little Italian's eyes.

The Briton's victory came as a distinct shock for Canzoneri, generally considered one of the very few great fighters of the era, who was a 2 to 1 favorite. Berg's victory demonstrated at the same time that the Englishman can make the lightweight limit without snapping any of his remarkable endurance or speed. The Englishman scaled 134½ to Canzoneri's 133 for the bout.

How Babe Worries About Contract

If worried over contract negotiations with his New York Yankee employers, Babe Ruth doesn't show it here. Babe and Mrs. Babe journeyed to St. Petersburg, Fla., immediately after the Bambino made known his need of $85,000 a year to the Yank owners. The Ruths are enjoying golf and the winter sunshine, as the picture shows. Although the Babe is classed as a holdout, he will work out regularly to retain his trim figure so that he may step into a Yankee uniform without delay after he places his signature on the new contract.

Rockne Congratulates Pupil

Iowa City, Ia.—Willis A. Glassgow, star University of Iowa half-back who won recognition on mythical eleven last fall, indicated today he would decline appointments to either the United States Military Academy or the U. S. Naval Academy. The Hawkeye star, who has been offered an appointment to either school, said he wishes to continue studying law.

Chicago—Ray Alvis resigned today as matchmaker for Promoter Jack Dempsey.

"Although my relations have always been cordial with Jack Dempsey and his business manager, Leon and Sacks, I have the urge to go back to managing fighters," Alvis said. "It is my ambition to establish a championship in one of the divisions."

Bloomington, Ind.—The University of Michigan swimming team inaugurated its campaign for its third consecutive Western Conference championship by defeating the University of Indiana natators here yesterday, 68 to 15. The Wolverines took first place in all events.

Chicago—University of Chicago basketball hopes, already at a low ebb, received another setback today when it was learned that Sid Yates, star forward, would be out of the game three weeks because of a fractured wrist.

Chicago—Twenty-five exhibition games have been arranged for the Chicago White Sox during the spring training season, Harry Grabner, secretary of the club, announced today. Seventeen contests are against the New York Giants while the others are with Waco, Dallas, Fort Worth and Little Rock of the Texas League. The advance squad will leave for spring training headquarters at San Antonio, Texas, Feb. 15, Grabner said.

New York—Waite Hoyt, veteran pitcher, has returned his unsigned contract, to the New York Yankees and joined Babe Ruth in the holdout ranks. Hoyt, who drew $15,000 last season, had been asked to accept a lower salary.

Chicago, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Promoter Jack Dempsey and Leo Lomski, Aberdeen, Wash., light heavyweight, today were almost convinced that the boxing game is something to stay out of. The former world heavyweight champion's sorrow was caused by the fact that only 5,422 spectators who paid $15,939, went to the Chicago Coliseum to see Lomski and James J. Braddock, the Jersey City puncher, fight.

Lomski will never believe he didn't get better than a draw with Braddock, and from their actions when the standoff decision was announced most of the witnesses agree with the westerner.

Although knocked down twice by Braddock's right hand jolts, Lomski, in the opinion of ringside experts, took seven of the 10 rounds, and deserved the decision. The referee and judges produced all the variety of opinion possible, the former, Davy Miller, calling it a draw, one judge voting for Lomski, and the other casting his ballot for Braddock. Lomski was floored for a two-count in the second round, and went down again in the fifth without taking a count. However, he carried the fight to his taller, heavier opponent, and scored repeatedly with his left to both head and body.

To Federal Courts

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 18.—(UP)—Homer Wright and Thomas Fagan of Terre Haute, Ind., two members of a gang of four alleged gunmen who were arrested in this city several weeks ago, were ordered removed to the jurisdiction of the U. S. District Court at Louisville, Kentucky, following a hearing yesterday before U. S. Commissioner W. A. Ruegg.

Jack Bella third members of the quartet, was ordered removed to the district court at Indianapolis, while authorities asked a postponement on the case of Alen O'Hara, fourth member of the gang. An attempt will be made to have him removed to the Indiana district court.

When arrested several weeks ago the quartet had a small arsenal consisting of pistols and machine guns in a rooming house overlooking the U. S. Postoffice in this city. Their rooms were located just across the street from Governor L. L. Emmerson's residence.

Buck May Run For State Treasurer

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 18.—(UP)—Clarence F. Buck, Director of the State Department of Agriculture and former State Senator, will probably be a candidate for State Treasurer on the Republican ticket it was learned here today.

Senator Buck has not made formal announcement that he will enter the race but has indicated that he will announce his candidacy within a short time. He is said to have petitions ready for circulation on short notice.

It has been rumored in political circles for several days that Buck will resign from the Governor's cabinet on February 1 to make the race. He is said to have the support of several state officials and cabinet members.

There are at least four mistakes in the above picture. They may pertain to grammar, history, etiquette, drawing or whatnot. See if you can find them. Then look at the scrambled word below—and unscramble it, by switching the letters around. Grade yourself 20 for each of the mistakes you find, and 20 for the word if you unscramble it. Monday we'll explain the mistakes and tell you the word. Then you can see how near a hundred you bat.

FRIDAY'S CORRECTIONS

(1) The referee, in counting a man out, should stop at ten. (2) A fourth man should not be in the ring while the count is still going on. (3) One of the ropes is missing from the right, forward side of the ring. (4) The "button" is commonly known as the chin and a blow in that spot would not break the nose. (5) The scrambled word is PICTURE.

Just Monkeying Around

Monkey business, that's what! Rumors were heard that there was a little domestic trouble in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chimpanzee, over on Simian street, and it certainly would seem from the picture at the top as though the fair Aka were somewhat disdainful of her boy friend Max. But it seems that a chuck under the chin turns away wrath, and in the center you see Aka smiling her prettiest. So everything is hunky-dory now, and below they are pictured as each monkey shines up to the other. They're American circus and movie performers, now appearing in Berlin.

JUDITH CAMERON marries ARTHUR KNIGHT, executive of New York publishing house in which she is employed. They sail for a six-weeks honeymoon in Bermuda. Knight is a widower with an 18-year-old daughter, TONY, who is in Europe, and a son, JUNIOR, 16, at school. In his infatuation he overlooks the fact that Judith is not communicative about her past life.

After the first week in Bermuda, a cablegram arrives announcing that Tony Knight is coming home. Arthur tells Judith they must return at once to meet her. Since neither the girl nor boy knows of the father's remarriage, Judith is skeptical of her welcome.

Arthur and Judith reach the Long Island home just one day before Tony's boat docks. Next morning Knight meets his daughter but when they arrive at the house Tony ignores Judith and rushes to her own room. Late that afternoon Tony confronts her stepmother and exclaims: "You're going to get out!"

Knight, entering the house to overhear this, comes to Tony and apologizes. She does so sullenly. After dinner MICKEY MORTIMER calls and takes her to a round of night clubs. Mortimer is a blasé amusement-seeker whom Tony met in Paris. He is separated from his wife and is deep in a flirtation with the girl.

As the days pass a state of armed neutrality exists between Tony and her stepmother. Arthur meanwhile makes plans for a festive Christmas and Junior arrives home for the holidays.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XV

EACH day as Christmas drew nearer Judith Knight's uneasiness grew.

Evenings when Arthur was at home she fought down the presentiment and felt strengthened by his confidence and devotion. She was learning to manage his household in the smooth, frictionless way in which Arthur liked everything to go. Of course, Mrs. Wheeler was responsible for most of this, but Judith added touches of her own.

The menus she planned were not only balanced as food rations but appealed to her husband's discriminating taste. Judith had found some means of inspiring her cook to reach culinary heights Cora had never attained before.

The Knight home looked exactly the same as the first morning Judith had entered it. In the evening across mellow candle light or before the flickering grate fire Arthur Knight thought his bride had imbued the home with her own delightful personality. He felt this particularly when his children were not present.

It was the children, of course, who made Christmas so difficult. The shock of Tony's denunciation had not yet entirely lifted. The cool, aloof courtesy of Arthur Junior was nearly as hard to bear. The boy's manner cut Judith because she did not understand it. She was prepared to face a united front by brother and sister. This did not occur.

After the first greeting Junior spent little time with Tony. He had friends home from school for the holidays. There was a landing field farther out on Long Island where Junior went nearly every morning. He knew some pilots there who were willing to let him stand around and watch while they worked. He came back smelling of gasoline and rather grimy.

CHRISTMAS EVE finally came. Judith loved carols and all the season's time-honored ceremonials. She was downstairs early that evening, waiting for the rest of the household to assemble. There must be Christmas music—lots of it—on the air. She turned the dials of the handsome radio cabinet.

"It came upon a midnight clear, the glorious night of old—"

Junior appeared and the four went into the dining room. Knight reminded the group that tomorrow would be Christmas day. He was the only one at the table who seemed to relish the arrival of the festival. Tony's expression showed plainly that she was bored, and Junior was unusually reserved.

"Both you hoodlums remember to hang up your stockings for Santa Claus," Knight said with a knowing smile.

"Father, for goodness sake, why do you keep using that ridiculous word, 'hoodlums'?" It was bad enough when we were youngsters for girls to which she was sentenced for five years.

Harry W. Stoughbaugh was named in the license.

The word "sandwich" is derived from the Earl of Sandwich, who was the originator of this form of food.

Bloomers are named after Ann Bloomer, who was the first woman to wear this type of dress.

The majestic rhythms of the old hymn filled the room. A church choir somewhere was singing. Judith stood before a window, looking out upon the dark street.

Suddenly Judith forgot Arthur Knight and forgot his children. She stared out at the darkness, lost in her own thoughts. Peace on earth. Good will toward Folks that suddenly git into the newspapers an' don't take a good photograph are to be pitied. "Gee whop, if you hain't goin' to help poor people who own cars what'er you goin' to do wi's your money?" Pogue Swallow asked the township trustees, today.

of Lee County as well as others are asked to give this subject consideration in a program some time before November 4, when the matter will come before the people of the state for a vote. The Clives department of the Franklin Grove Woman's Club is planning such a program and probably other organizations of the community will do the same.

It was suggested that the local club plan for and sponsor a centennial celebration of the settlement of Lee County, which began in 1832. Much enthusiasm concerning this project was expressed and while it is confidently hoped that such a plan with the aid of the Woman's Club of the county and all interested citizens may be carried out.

Mrs. Deutsch told of a "Home Library Contest" which is being put on by the department of Literature of the Federation of Women's Clubs also a plan being advanced by the department of Conservation and Gardens to make this district a "Petunia District", asking everyone to co-operate to grow petunias everywhere and particularly along roadsides or anywhere there is a place for them. They grow easily, bloom freely and the seed is cheap and they are full of beauty and cheer. We can all "do our bit" in this way to make the world a more beautiful place in which to live.

The work being done in the 7th and 8th grades of the local school in the making of bird houses by the boys, sponsored by the Conservation department, and sewing by the girls, sponsored by the American Homes department, was also reported and Mrs. Deutsch complimented the club on this kind of work.

Mrs. W. L. Moore and Mrs. F. J. Blocher gave two very enjoyable piano duets. Mrs. Deutsch gave a group of readings in her attractive way. The social committee served delicious refreshments and a period of social visiting was enjoyed before those present went several ways over the icy streets.

Dr. Shannon Coming
Remember the union service Sunday night, January 19, at 7:30 o'clock in the church of the Brethren, with Dr. Shannon of Chicago as the speaker. A packed house ought to greet this noted preacher, who is so well known by his radio audience. This service is sponsored by the Men's Club who are fortunate in securing a speaker of this type. A men's chorus from the Men's Club will sing several songs. An offering will be taken to cover the various expenses of securing Dr. Shannon.

P. T. A. Notes
A thorough and systematic consideration of the health and safety of people in general and particularly of boys and girls of school age, was given in the program Friday evening by the Parent-Teachers Association.

The first number, "The House We Live In," to be presented by a paragon, was given by Mrs. E. R. Buck. She presented the subject in a very able way, describing the personal make-up of every individual as four-story building, with the lowest story the physical, dominated by the stomach; the second story the moral, ruled by the heart; the third, the mental, controlled by the brain; and the fourth and highest, the spiritual, with the soul over and above all.

The subject, "Flaming America," was to be discussed by an insurance man, and L. J. Miller did this in a most convincing way. The facts concerning fires in the United States are most startling and when compared in the light of the fact that 90 per cent of all fires are avoidable, the matter becomes one that should be very thoughtfully studied by everyone. It has become of such importance that the governors of many states issue yearly proclamations to the public, warning them of danger and urging preventive measures to overcome the fire hazard in every community. One of the most common fire causes is the combustible roofs, which easily catch fire from sparks in dry weather. If all these could be made fire-proof, the number of yearly fires would be much lessened.

Another phase of safety, that of accident control, was presented by the local physician and county coroner, Dr. F. M. Banker. He impressed on all the increasing prevalence of accidents and the resulting disability, caused largely by the more general use of machinery of all kinds, including automobiles. Because of these conditions, there is also an increasing need of care to prevent accidents and safety education in schools and homes, to impress upon children the importance of being careful to avoid the dangers. He gave several simple rules for procedure in case of accident, while waiting for a doctor, which would help to relieve the suffering patient and provide local sanitation and comfort.

The last talk was given by the County Nurse, Mrs. Jessie Burtsfield of Dixon. She told of the program of school inspection as carried out by her through most of the rural schools of the county. The object of this inspection, followed up periodically is to check upon physical defects which are a handicap to the child's advancement in school and in life as well. She finds that in a large number of instances when the physical defects are corrected the child's work in school becomes much more efficient and enjoyable. Often these defects are never discovered until the child goes to school, for that they are not noticeable because they do not interfere with his daily life in the same way.

Many children get low marks in their studies when it is the physical make-up rather than the mental, that is faulty. Among the items included in the nurse's inspection of schools are those of weight, hearing, eye tests, teeth, throat and nose conditions, adenoids, diseased tonsils, etc., posture and general health habits. The nurse records these conditions, gives advice concerning their correction where needed and when she visits the same school again to check up, is always glad to find an advance made in correction of defects reported, for she knows it means a corresponding advance in the child's welfare.

Several musical numbers were given by the orchestra, directed by Prof. Neal Fox, at intervals during the program. The next P. T. A. meeting was announced for February 7, when a program on the founding, history and work of the organization will be given.

Elect. Officers
At the annual meeting of the stock holders of the Citizens State Bank held in Kersten hall recently the following directors were elected: C. W. Crum, L. J. Miller, Ymer Cline, O. O. Miller, C. L. Ramsdell, R. W. Smith, E. L. Lott. The cashier's report showed 1929 to have been the most profitable year in the history of the bank. During that time the dividend rate was increased and a neat sum added to the undivided profits account. Immediately after the stockholders' meeting adjourned, the newly elected board of directors met and elected the following officers: C. W. Crum, president; Elmer Cline, vice president; and L. J. Miller, cashier.

Brethren Church
Next Sunday evening there will be a union service in our church. The local men's organization has secured Dr. Frederick Shannon of Chicago to deliver one of his timely messages for the benefit of our community. This is a rare privilege and we believe the people of our community will avail themselves of this opportunity. The service begins at 7:30. A free will offering will be taken to defray the expenses.

A union mid-week service has been arranged for a few weeks, with the hope that it will add interest to the mid-week service and help prepare the people of our community for the revival meeting which will begin in our church February 12, by Rev. Austin and his wife of McPherson, Kansas. Next Wednesday evening the service will be held in our church. Note the hour is 7 o'clock. All should lend their encouragement and assistance to this service.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church
Sunday school, 1:30. Preaching in the English language at 2:30. The annual business meeting will be held after the preaching service.—F. W. Henke, Pastor.

Men's Club Meeting
The Men's Club held their monthly meeting Tuesday night in the Presbyterian church. Between fifty and sixty men were present. The meeting was presided over by the chairman, E. R. Buck. The main address of the evening was given by Judge Harry Edwards of Dixon and was especially good. Refreshments were served. A well organized orchestra furnished the music, and their limitation of the German band was very good indeed. The outlook for the club is very encouraging and is a splendid thing for any community.
